

CROWNING CEREMONY OF THE IMPERIAL PRINCE AND PRINCESS ROYALE OF THE IMPERIAL SOVEREIGN ROSE COURT *

When all of the appropriate personnel have been assembled on the dais, the Imperial Red Book shall be presented to their Most Imperial Majesties, the reigning Monarchs.

The reigning Monarchs shall call for the Imperial Prince and Princess Royale decade celebrants to bring forth the new Imperial Prince and Princess Royale.

When they have been assembled on the dais, the new Imperial Prince and Princess Royale shall take their place on the kneeling bench.

The reigning Emperor shall present the official crown pin and medallion to the Prince followed by the statement: “I Rose Emperor _____ crown and elevate you, _____, to Imperial Prince Royale ____.”

The reigning Empress shall present the official crown to the Princess followed by the statement: “I Rose Empress _____ crown and elevate you, _____, to Imperial Princess Royale ____.”

The reigning Monarchs reading from the Imperial Red Book shall read together: “You kneel before us, Imperial Prince and Princess Royale. Let the Rose remind you of the joy and beauty you are expected to bring to the reign”.

TOGETHER, the reigning Emperor and Empress shall, using the Imperial Sword, welcome the Imperial Prince and Princess Royale to the _____ of the Rose.

The master of ceremonies shall at this time introduce the new Imperial Prince and Princess Royale to the public.

Following the introduction of the new Imperial Prince and Princess Royale, the master of ceremonies shall introduce those present on the dais off stage in reverse protocol order.

*Approved by the ISRC Monarchs, August 10, 2010