

White Knight & Debutante Crowning Ceremony

For this ceremony you will need:

- Crowning Bench
- Red Book
- Debutante Tiara and hair Pins
- White Knight Medallion
- Crowning Sword
- Two rose pins if winners do not already have a rose from the reigning monarch(s)

The emcees will call forth all prior Rose Court White Knights and Debutantes

The emcee will call forth the board representative with the Red Book, Symbols of Office, and winner names.

When all appropriate people have assembled on the dais the Imperial; Red Book is presented to the Monarch(s)

The reigning Monarch(s) call forth the White Knight and Debutante decade celebrants to bring forth the new White Knight and Debutante. The Board Member will hand the winners envelope to the Decade Celebrants, whom will take it and retrieve the winners.

The crowning bench should be placed at this time

The reigning Monarch(s) shall then read:

As traditional Symbols of these positions, I present our White Knight medallion and Debutante tiara.

The Monarch(s) then place the White Knight Medallion on the White Knight and the Debutante Tiara on the Debutante. (The monarch may request assistance in the pinning of the crown, but the symbols of office are vested by the Monarch(s), not by any other person, so it should be placed by the Monarch(s) even if others assist in pinning)

The Monarch(s) may choose to also vest their roses at this time, or may do it later at their discretion.

The Monarch(s) shall then read:

By the power vested in me by the Imperial Sovereign Rose Court, I

Rose Emperor # _____, _____

And I,

Rose Empress # _____, _____

Do hereby crown you

_____ as White Knight # _____

And

_____ as Debutante # _____

Monarch(s) will grasp the crowning Sword and state together:

I crown you

Once for the _____

Twice for the _____

And three times for the _____ of the rose!

Congratulate the winners and tell them to rise.
